★ ★ Shriners' Day To Blend Fun, Food, Football

Take a parade, a college football game, a pancake and sausage supper, a chicken and dumpling dinner; fly jet planes overhead, sell peanuts, and blend thoroughly with 2,000 members of the Ainad Temple and you have the ingredients for a Shrine Day in Carbondale.

Twenty-eight chapters of the Ainad Temple hope to make Shrine Day, Saturday, better than the previous three with the proceeds going into a scholarship fund for needy students.

The first event will start at 6 a.m. as the Lions Club starts its new motor-driven circular grill and begins to produce pancakes and sausages for Lions' charities.

At 4 p.m., the Shrine Parade will start at Chestnut street and go south on Illinois avenue to Grand avenue.

Bands from Murphysboro, Marion, DuQuoin, Dongola, Ft. Campbell and the SIU ROTC Department will participate in the parade.

The Ainad Temple Potentate, past potentates, Ainad parade marshal, colorguard, band, motor patrol, chanters, drum and bugle corp and a mounted patrol will also be featured.

Police cars, fire trucks, and a jet plane swooping over the parade route at 4:10 p.m. will complete that event.

The Kiwanis Club will sell peanuts to finance a Halloween parade, Oct. 31.

If just peanuts don't satisfy the parade watchers' hunger, The Mothers of De Molay Club will serve a chicken and dumpling dinner from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

After all this excitement, the Shriners may relax, packed elbow-to-elbow in McAndrew Stadium for the fourth annual Shrine Game with Ft. Campbell at 8 p.m.

Comment Is Unfavorable

Committee to Draft Objections To Proposed Final Test Plan

A special committee headed by Pat Micken, student body president, has been named to draft a list of valid objections to the new final examination plan to be presented to University officials.

Members of the council devoted most of their Thursday night meeting to discussing the new plan. Most of the comment was unfavorable.

Previously, the Registrar's Office drafted a formal examination schedule to cover final examination week.

However, the administration recently announced that for a one-year trial period, no formal examination schedule would be prepared for the Carbondale campus.

In its place each instructor would give the final examination at the last regularly scheduled class meeting and classes would meet through the examination week.

Some of the objections to the new plan were that it would give the student less time for last-minute studying; he might have to take two or more examinations in one day; students might find it difficult getting transportation out of Carbondale if everyone is released from class on the same day.

The Council also approved the appointment of Arthur Prell, director of the Bureau of Business Research, as its adviser.

He 'Lives' Only 7 Hours a Day

By Frank Messersmith
Imagine what you could do in seven hours!

In a car you could drive to Wisconsin. On a jet plane you could easily fly to either coast. You could watch a football game, a baseball game and maybe take in a movie too.

But, what couldn't you do in seven hours, especially if you had to crowd all the daily physical activities into that relatively short time?

All your class attendance, business matters and most of your recreation time would have to be compressed into seven short hours—if you were confined to an iron lung the rest of the time.

Could you do it?
Thomas Meath, a graduate student from Stanford, Conn., does it every day.

Crippled by polio at the age of 10, Meath has continued his schooling in the world of the physically fit, although he can be outside an iron lung only seven hours a day.

He graduated from Fairfield University in Connecticut in 1964 with a major in sociology, and is currently enrolled as a graduate student in the Rehabilitation Institute at SIU.

Meath says he traveled all the way from the East to Southern Illinois because of the facilities for disabled students at SIU that are attracting the handicapped throughout the state and country.

Meath is limited to about seven hours of relative freedom a day. However, he carries a portable "positive pressure respirator" on his wheel chair when attending class.

The portable unit which works by exerting pressure against the diaphragm and forcing the air out of the lungs, can be operated on battery power or plugged into a wall receptacle.

Yet, with all the restrictions, Meath is not one to feel sorry for himself.

In his work as a graduate student, Meath is required to do field work at various rehabilitation organizations.

According to Meath, it is similar to the internship that medical students must serve. Techniques and methods of

Just Visiting for Overnight; Plans No Speech, Interview

—Lynda Bird Johnson will be an overnight guest on the SIU campus tonight.

The President's older daughter is expected to arrive late tonight and be a house guest of President and Mrs. Delyte W. Morris.

Sunday morning she will have breakfast at 8 a.m. with Thompson Point students in Lentz Hall and then attend church before leaving about noon for a Democratic rally in Springfield.

SIU is the first university or college Miss Johnson has visited since she began campaigning for her father.

Miss Johnson, currently touring the country on behalf of an organization called the "Young Citizens for Johnson and Humphrey," will make no formal speeches nor grant interviews while on campus.

"She will just visit informally with the students," a spokesman for her party said.

Her schedule for tonight, after arriving on campus, is undecided. A spokesman for her group said he was unable to say whether or not she will make a public appearance after reaching the campus.

The Paul Winter Sextet, a young East Coast jazz group traveling with Miss Johnson's party, will perform at the dance in the University Center following the football game, the spokesman said.

The Winter group traveled throughout South America on a State Department tour and gained national recognition after being invited to play at the White House by the late President John F. Kennedy.

Morris to Fete Foreign Students

President and Mrs. Delyte W. Morris will entertain Southern's International Students at a dinner in the University Center Ballroom tonight.

Guest speaker will be Willis G. Swartz, dean of International Students, who now is working in Washington, D.C., with the National Committee on Accrediting. The Committee is financed by the Carnegie Commission.

There will be a visiting period in the University Center Lounge beginning at 5 p.m. Dinner will be served at 5:45.

More than 300 foreign guests are expected for the dinner.

International students who are not American citizens will fill out annual census reports required of all foreign university students.

Students unable to attend the meeting should go to the International Student Center next week to fill out census cards and other reports.

Miss Johnson, who earlier this week toured the South with her mother, on the "Lady Bird Special," was to appear in New York this morning, then fly to St. Louis for a Democratic barbecue on the estate of August Busch Jr., owner of Anheuser-Busch Brewery. She will fly to Carbondale after the barbecue.

Miss Johnson will be accompanied by Mrs. Marta Ross, her White House assistant, and an official of the Young Citizens for Johnson and Humphrey.

The spokesman said she will arrive at Lentz Hall about 8 a.m. A University official said only students who regularly eat in Lentz Hall will be served. Other students interested in seeing Miss Johnson are welcome to come to the dining hall while she is there.

The spokesman for Miss Johnson's party said SIU was picked for the visit "because it is a large midwestern university and is representative of all schools."

Baptist Churches to Provide Food for Touring Students

The Baptist Student Union and the Local Southern Baptist Churches are co-sponsoring a Progressive Dinner, Saturday. The dinner-on-the-road will begin at 5 p.m. when the students leave the Baptist Student Center on SIU buses.

The dinner is to acquaint Baptist students with local Baptist church programs, according to Charles E. Gray, director of student activities for the Baptist Student Union. Steve Edwards, a sophomore from Pinckneyville, and Judy Harbison, a junior from Carbondale, are co-chairmen for the event which involves the serving of different courses of a meal at the various Baptist churches in Carbondale.

The meal will begin at 5:15 p.m. with the appetizer at Mardale Baptist Church. Salad will be served at 5:45 at Lakeland Baptist.

Walnut Street Baptist will provide the main course at 6:10 p.m., with dessert being served at University Baptist at 6:45. Coffee will be served at Lantana Baptist at 7:05 p.m. to round off the dinner. The group will assemble at the Baptist Student Center before the game at 7:20 and again later for an after-game fellowship.

Gray stressed that the dinner was not restricted to Baptist students, but that anyone interested could participate.

Conducting Census

The Baptist Student Union is taking a census of all Southern Baptist students currently enrolled at SIU.

The census is being conducted in conjunction with the Illinois Baptist Student Census, a statewide headcount being carried out on all college and university campuses.

The Education Committee of the Illinois Baptist State Association has requested the count in order to find out such information as where Baptist students are concentrated, where Baptist student unions are needed and for which vocations these students are preparing.

The association also hopes that the census will generate students' interest in church and BSU programs.

Stan Hill, a sophomore from Marion, and Valerie Withrow, a junior from Wayne City, are the enlistment committee co-chairmen in charge of the census.

Charles Gray, director of student activities for the Baptist Student Union, requests every Baptist student to fill out a form and bring it to the Baptist Student Union office.

Long-Toiling Congress Leaves Impressive Record

Rights, Tax-Cut, Antipoverty Laws Passed

(By Jack Harrison)

The Civil Rights Law of 1964 and a $13.5 billion tax cut are two of the most significant products of the 88th Congress, which adjourned last week.

But this long-toiling Congress set other precedents and pushed forward in other areas as well.

Its accomplishments were mainly in the domestic field—education, mental health, antipoverty, mass transit, housing, urban renewal, plus civil rights and the tax cut.

The 88th Congress was in session for nearly 21 months, with few breaks during that time. At times recalcitrants. Johnson, former Senate majority and veteran of the congressional wars, was much more effective at this than was Kennedy.

The fight for the civil rights bill was marked by an impressive demonstration that the Senate can halt a filibuster. In early July, after 83 days of Southern delaying tactics, the filibuster was broken, leading the way to passage of the most comprehensive civil rights law since Reconstruction.

The action on civil rights means that the 88th Congress may have earned a place in history as the congress that "opened the doors of equal opportunity to the Negro."

The law forbids discrimination in employment, federal programs, public facilities and public accommodations. It also gives the Justice Department added power to enforce voting rights and speed school desegregation.

Passage of the tax cut bill in February represented congressional acceptance of what most economists now believe—that tax cuts and fiscal policy in general should be used to influence the country's economy.

The tax cut was designed to give families and businesses more money to spend, thus stimulating demand for goods and services and increasing production and creating jobs. Prosperity has continued to blossom since the tax cut went into effect and the Democrats are reminding the voters of this in the current election campaign.

In foreign affairs, the 88th Congress approved the expansion of the Peace Corps and gave its approval to the sale of wheat to Russia. The Senate approved the nuclear test ban treaty. In 1963 the Congress slashed more deeply at the foreign aid program than ever before, but this year only $250 million was cut from the requested $3.5 billion. In major foreign issues this year, the President had little trouble getting congressional assent to his actions.

A significant action of this type was congressional approval of President Johnson's Southeast Asia defense resolution.

President Kennedy initiated most of the programs which Johnson worked hard to get through Congress. But the antipoverty bill was Johnson's own. Congress presented him with a billion-dollar program which was a major breakthrough in domestic legislation.

The "war on poverty" includes the training and educating of youths at camps and centers, aid to local communities in local attacks on poverty, and establishment of a domestic version of the Peace Corps for work in areas of poverty.

In other economic matters, the 88th Congress used its taxing power to combat a negative balance of international payments. New legislation discourages the outflow of American dollars by imposing a tax on the purchase of foreign securities by Americans.

Other programs to aid the needy included a three-year, $375 million food-stamp plan designed to improve diets, and a billion-dollar housing and urban renewal program.

Sanders, Kansas City Star

'HEAR TELL THET POVERTY PROGRAM IS A TRICK T'GIT OUR VOTE. WHUT'S A VOTE, MA?'

Senate liberals used the filibuster to stall off and finally defeat the "Dirksen rider" which would have struck at the Supreme Court's ruling on state legislative reapportionment.

A bill was passed authorizing a pay raise for 1.7 million federal employees, including members of Congress.

The two major failures of the 88th Congress, as far as the administration's program was concerned, were medicare and aid to Appalachia. Health care for the aged under social security died in a deadlocked conference committee. A billion-dollar aid bill earmarked for Appalachian relief was approved by the Senate but did not get to the floor of the House.

it was assailed for its halting pace. But it produced a burst of speed in its last 10 months and, prodded expertly by a new President, Lyndon B. Johnson, turned in a final record of many noteworthy accomplishments.

Johnson's party, the Democratic, held strong majorities in both houses—254-177 in the House of Representatives and 67-33 in the Senate (before the party switch of Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina).

But a band of conservative Democrats put a crimp in the party's legislative program, causing a number of deadlocks and making it necessary for Democratic Presidents Johnson and John F. Kennedy to resort to hard bargaining with the

Political Soundings in Midwest Show Strange Pattern

By ARTHUR EDSON
Associated Press

CHICAGO--This may be the strangest of all presidential elections.

It will be—at least here in the decisive Midwest—an election in which many voters say they don't like either Lyndon B. Johnson or Barry Goldwater.

It will be an election in which, although the polls show Johnson doing unusually well in this area, a surprisingly large number of voters concentrate on Goldwater. They're either energetically for, or dead set against, the Republican challenger.

It could be an election that, ironically, may be decided by those so listless or uncertain or disgusted that they won't vote.

Listen to what the Midwesterners are saying:

In Fargo, N.D., Oscar Hanson, 72, a retired farmer, sums up his feelings. "I have been a Republican all my life, but this year I'm on edge," Hanson says. "There is something about Goldwater I don't like. I ain't saying I will vote Democratic, but I might."

In Racine, Wis., Susan J. Pfeiffer is certain that Goldwater is the last hope for local government. "A vote for Lyndon Johnson," she says, "is a vote for socialism."

In Springfield, Mo., Charmae Pollock, who works for a health studio, says:

"I think if we had a write-in candidate this time he'd win."

Out here they're accenting the negative. And the Midwest may be the best cross-section we have.

From Ohio to Kansas to the Dakotas, these 12 states show astonishing variety within and among themselves.

Within these states are five of

Ed Valtman, Hartford Times

JUST A PUSH MIGHT DO IT'

the nation's largest cities, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, St. Louis, Milwaukee.

Traditionally Republicans do well here.

In 1960, when the Midwest had 153 electoral votes, Richard M. Nixon won this area, 82-72.

In 1964, Goldwater has four states he considers vital to his cause, and two of them, Ohio and Illinois, are in the Midwest. The others are California and Texas.

Anyone who can win big in this area has taken a giant stride toward the 270 electoral votes needed to capture the White House, and so Johnson and Goldwater come here again and again.

This reporter has toured the area talking politics from Cleveo, Mo., to Ann Arbor, Mich., from Minneapolis to Stratford, Ohio. Other reporters for the Associated Press and member newspapers have interviewed voters in each of the 12 states.

Not many of those interviewed mentioned civil rights unless the reporter brought it up. But an important Democratic leader in this area said:

"This backlash frightens me. We have tried to minimize it, but I'm not sure we can minimize it. I don't think anybody can read this thing yet."

U.N. Debt Showdown Risky, Russia Says

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.-- The Soviet Union accused the United States Friday of attempting to destroy the United Nations by insisting upon a showdown over Soviet refusal to pay any of its $55 million debt for U.N. peace-keeping assessments.

Soviet Delegate Nikolai T. Fedorenko raised the issue at an otherwise routine meeting of the U.N. Security Council on the application of Malawi, former British-ruled Nyasaland, for U.N. membership. He described as "a mockery of the principles of the U.N. Charter" a U.S. memorandum on the issue of paying peace-keeping assessments, presented Thursday.

The presentation of the U.S. proposal prompted a suggestion by some diplomats that the assembly postpone its scheduled Nov. 10 opening.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson gave notice to Secretary-General U. Thant Thursday that when the assembly opens Nov. 10, the United States will demand that the Soviet Union and nine other delinquent nations pay up or lose their votes in the assembly.

The Soviet Union has hinted it will quit the United Nations if it loses its vote.

Although the Soviet Union has paid its assessments for regular operations of the U.N., its refusal to pay anything toward the peace forces in the Congo or the Middle East has put it among 10 nations that are now two years behind in total U.N. dues.

The U.S. memorandum noted that under Article 19 of the U.N. Charter, any member two years in arrears shall be deprived of its assembly vote.

Goldwater Decries Coexistence Policy

LOS ANGELES -- Sen. Barry Goldwater told a cheering crowd of about 10,000 persons at the Hughes Aircraft Co. Friday that the United States must take a firmer position against Russian communism than the Johnson administration seems willing to do.

He said that President Johnson is playing "a dangerous game" of coexistence with Russia.

"The biggest military display since Hitler was put on by the East Germans the other day," Goldwater said. "This does not indicate to me that communism is mellowing."

Characterizing the President as "Lyndon-comelately," Goldwater lashed out at Johnson as a man afraid to take the risk of standing up firmly against the Communists.

Johnson Angered, Saddened By Slaps at Kennedy's Motives

EN ROUTE WITH JOHNSON -- President Johnson rapped Barry Goldwater Friday for questioning John F. Kennedy's motives in handling the Cuban missile crisis.

Johnson, invading Kentucky and Tennessee, also took issue with his Republican rival on the question of dealing with the locally important Tennessee Valley Authority.

The President tacked a "not for sale" sign on TVA, part of which Goldwater has talked of selling.

Reaching Nashville, Johnson was greeted by many thousands of people and responded by repeatedly halting his motorcade to do some handshaking and some impromptu speechmaking.

After one foray into the crowd, Johnson emerged with a bright dab of red lipstick on his left cheek which he sported all the way to his speaking date at Memorial Square--ignorant that the lipstick was there.

The President said he was "very sorry and very saddened" to hear recent charges that the Cuban missile crisis was manufactured by Kennedy for political purposes--"now when he's not here and can't answer for himself."

Goldwater has made such a charge, but Johnson did not name his opponent in commenting on the subject. Instead, he said:

"This is sufficient indictment of the author of that statement to let everyone know who they ought to vote for president."

Red China Informing Allies She Plans Atomic Test Soon

WASHINGTON--Communist China apparently has begun a diplomatic campaign to prepare the way for early explosion of a nuclear test bomb and assure maximum political impact in Africa and Asia.

Diplomatic officials say that Indonesian authorities who are close to the Chinese Communists have been told that the first Red Chinese atomic device will be exploded sometime after the end of October.

The implication of this and other reports which have been published in Paris is that the Chinese Communist officials are now in effect confirming the forecast of an early Communist Chinese nuclear detonation which was made recently by Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

U.S. officials believe the first Chinese explosion will be an atmospheric shot easily detectable by American devices which record earth shocks, sound waves, and the level of radioactive fallout in the air at great distances from a test site. Speculation is that the test will be held in China's remote Sinkiang province.

The Chinese word to Asian and African governments apparently did not specify a date or deadline for the prospective blast.

Reds Kidnap U.S. Colonel In Venezuela

CARACAS, Venezuela -- A U.S. Air Force colonel apparently was kidnapped Friday by pro-Communist terrorists, a U.S. Embassy spokesman said.

He was identified as Lt. Col. Michael Smolen, deputy chief of the U.S. mission to the Venezuelan air force.

Smolen was whisked away by two men as he left his house en route to work this morning.

Officials expressed fear it was the work of the FAIRN--Armed Forces for the National Liberation--the underground terrorist movement which last November kidnapped Lt. Col. James K. Chenault, deputy chief of the U.S. Army mission.

Chenault was released Dec. 5, tired but in good condition. He said he had been forced to spend his confinement time in pajamas in a modest home somewhere in Caracas.

the organization are observed and noted.

The field work calls for a great deal of planning on Meath's part, as he must make plans in advance of his assignments.

Special arrangements must be made to get attendants to help him get to and from his destinations. An attendant must also be had to help him take care of his physical needs, assist him in note taking and all the many common things that people do without consciously thinking about it.

Presently Meath, his mother and one student attendant are living in an apartment on R.R. 3. Meath's mother is staying to assist him until he can get two students to live with him and help take care of his needs.

Meath has advertised in the paper for students to live with him in exchange for free room and board, but so far no one has answered the ad.

Relative Newcomer to Olympics Competition, Southern Sends 2 Women, 2 Men to Tokyo

SIU, a relative newcomer to the national sports scene, may have one of the largest delegations of any American school at the Olympic Games which opened at midnight in Tokyo.

Two male and two female athletes from SIU are competing in the Olympics. And they have the aid and comfort of two SIU coaches.

Rusty Mitchell, star of SIU's national gymnastics champions, is one of the seven U.S. athletes to make the U.S. Olympic team.

Although he is the NCAA tumbling champion and a standout on the rings, Mitchell will be competing as an all-around gymnast in the Olympics. In the Olympics gymnasts compete in all events rather than just in their specialties.

Larry Kristoff, SIU's 236-pound heavyweight wrestler, is a member of the U.S. Olympic freestyle wrestling team.

This is Kristoff's second visit to Tokyo. He competed in the Tokyo games in the summer of 1963 as a warm-up to the Olympics and brought home the Japanese national championship.

Kristoff has won the NCAA college division heavyweight title on two previous occasions.

Dale McClements, a 19-year-old SIU sophomore from Seattle, Wash., is expected to be the mainstay on the U. S. women's gymnastics team. She was the top-scoring woman in tryouts for the American team.

Gail Daley, an 18-year-old SIU freshman from Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, will represent her home country in the Olympics.

Miss Daley, who was graduated from Carbondale Community High School, is one of Miss McClements teammates on the Southern Illinois Women's Gymnastics Team which has its headquarters at SIU.

Members of the SIU coaching staff who are in Tokyo to help with last minute training of their individual performers include Bill Meade, gymnastics coach and Jim Wilkinson, wrestling coach.

Kristoff's wife, Doris, also made the trip after local residents and SIU students contributed to a fund to pay for her transportation.

Mitchell's wife, the former Pam Powell, could not make the trip. She is expecting a baby. Her doctor has estimated that the baby will be born while Mitchell is in Tokyo.

Bouton, Simmons Hurl Today; Series Resumes in New York

NEW YORK (AP)--The World Series resumes today on the home grounds of the New York Yankees, after an off day Friday for travel from St. Louis.

Today's Yankee Stadium contest will pit Jim Bouton, a 25-year-old Yankee right-hander with an 18-13 record, against the Cardinals' 35-year-old Curt Simmons, 18-9, a lefthander.

The series stands even at one game each. The Cardinals won the opener Wednesday 9-5 and the Yankees came back Thursday to grab an 8-3 victory.

Games are scheduled in New York today, Sunday and Monday. If more are needed to complete the best-of-seven series, they will be played in St. Louis Wednesday and Thursday.

The Yankees' pitching prospects appear brighter than the Cardinals. St. Louis Manager Johnny Keane will use lefty Ray Sadecki and righthander Bob Gibson for the fourth and fifth games.

Yankee Manager Yogi Berra has Whitey Ford primed for the Sunday game. Ford had trouble in the opener, but he's always tough in spacious Yankee Stadium.

Mel Stottlemyre is scheduled to pitch for the Yankees Monday.

Injury-Plagued Salukis Meet Ft. Campbell

Miller, Deck and Massey

Probably Won't Make Game

Hoping to rebound from their poor performance at Tulsa last weekend, SIU's injury-plagued Salukis meet the Screaming Eagles of Ft. Campbell tonight in the fourth annual Shrine Day game in McAndrew Stadium.

The 8 p.m. contest is the second Saluki home game of the season, and will feature a half-time performance by a number of Southern Illinois Shrine bands and other marching units.

Southern is expected to enter tonight's game without the services of captain and starting center Gene Miller, defensive back Don Deck and sophomore end sensation Tom Massey. Miller aggravated an old neck injury in last week's Tulsa game while Deck suffered a sprained ankle in the same contest. Neither are expected to be in uniform tonight.

Massey, the Salukis' leading pass receiver (eight receptions for 123 yards) fractured his left cheekbone in the Tulsa outing and, according to head coach Don Shroyer, will not play unless a suitable face guard is found to protect his injury. In case Massey doesn't play, senior end Bonnie Shelton will take over his duties at the split end position.

Junior Bennie Hill will replace Miller at offensive center and running star Rich Weber, the Salukis' leading ground gainer, will take over for Deck in the defensive secondary.

SIU's starting offensive unit will be made up of ends Massey (or Shelton) and Mike McGinnis, tackles Earl O'Malley and Mitchell Krawczyk, guards Isaac Brigham and Willie Wilkerson and Hill at center. The Saluki offensive backfield includes junior Jim Hart at quarterback, halfbacks Weber and Rudy Phillips and fullback Charlie Warren.

Hoping to contain the passing and running of Scrappy Eagle quarterback, Phil Thomas and standout backs Ron Gardine and Dan Stevens, is the Saluki defense made up of tackles Krawczyk and Bill Lepsi, guards Brigham and Wilkerson, center line-backer Monty Riffer and ends Massey and McGinnis. The defensive backfield includes Warren, Weber, Phillips and senior Irv Rhodes.

"These army boys aren't as strong as they were with Blanda (former Eagle passing ace Tom Blanda) at quarterback," said Shroyer, "but they'll still be a tough team."

Unbeaten Saluki Frosh Squad To Fight Washington U. Next

No freshman football team coached by Frank Sovich has ever lost a game. And Sovich intends to keep it that way.

Going into the second game of his sophomore year at the helm of Southern's freshman squad, Sovich-coached teams have a clean slate of 6-0. He hopes to win one more against Washington University of St. Louis Monday night at 8 o'clock in McAndrew Stadium.

The Saluki freshmen looked good in their opener against Southeast Missouri State last week, and many observers believe this year's crop—the first entirely recruited by head coach Don Shroyer and his revamped staff—is the best in the school's history.

One thing is for sure: The line is big, averaging 217 pounds from tackle to tackle, and the backfield is tough and fast, although a little small. Exemplifying Sovich's optimism is the short reply he made to the question: Are you going to win the game? "Yep!" He added, "Of course, I don't go into any game I don't think I'm going to win."

Sovich has plenty of reasons to be optimistic too. He's got two speedy running backs in Steve Brooks, of Palatine, and Arnold Kee of Wheaton, and a tough fullback in Bill Hols, of Skokie, who scored both of SIU's touchdowns against SEMO. In quarterback Charlie Bennett of Benton, Sovich has the makings of a fine team leader. Bennett has good size (6-0, 180) and he passes well. Throw in Carbondale's Barry Brown for spot duty in the backfield and full-time work in the defensive secondary, and Sovich has a fine backfield corps.

Sovich's pride and joy, however, is his mammoth line. He singles out tackles Ted Cunningham, of Addison, who goes 6-3, 216, and Ralph Gallowsay, of East Aurora, 6-2, 227, as his outstanding linemen last week.

Students will be admitted to the game with an activity card. Admission for adults and faculty is $1.

SIU Meets DePaul In Cross-Country

Southern's cross-country team will face the DePaul University Track Club from Chicago here today in a quadrangle meet scheduled to get underway at 10:30 a.m.

In a preliminary meet SIU's freshmen team will run against the Saluki Track Club and Vincennes Jr. College.

Coach Lew Hartzog will go with the same lineup which was defeated by the University of Kansas last week.

Bill Cornell, who turned in the best time for the Salukis last week, will once again lead Southern. He will be backed up by Alan Ackman, John Trowbridge, Jack Leydig and Herb Walker.

Freshmen, Danny Shannessy and Tom Curry, who turned in two fine performances last week, will lead the freshmen team.

Southern will next compete in the Notre Dame Invitational Meet Oct. 16.
